FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 17, 2020

At 10:00 a.m. today, the Washington County Board of County Commissioners declared a Local State of Emergency. The local situation is no worse today than it was yesterday. The declaration enables the Board to take quick action without the need to call a special Board meeting should it become necessary for immediate procurement decisions and provides the ability to receive State and Federal funding to offset costs that could be accrued related to current concerns.
