

20252502er

subparagraph expires June 30, 2026.

The department, as requested, shall provide data to the panel, including, but not limited to, utilization trends in the workers' compensation health care delivery system. The department shall provide the panel with an annual report regarding the resolution of medical reimbursement disputes and any actions pursuant to subsection (8). The department shall provide administrative support and service to the panel to the extent requested by the panel. The department may adopt rules pursuant to ss. 120.536(1) and 120.54 to implement this subsection. For prescription medication purchased under the requirements of this subsection, a dispensing practitioner shall not possess such medication unless payment has been made by the practitioner, the practitioner's professional practice, or the practitioner's practice management company or employer to the supplying manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or drug repackager within 60 days of the dispensing practitioner taking possession of that medication.

Section 123. The amendment to s. 440.13(12)(d), Florida Statutes, made by this act expires July 1, 2026, and the text of that paragraph shall revert to that in existence on June 30, 2025, except that any amendments to such text enacted other than by this act shall be preserved and continue to operate to the extent that such amendments are not dependent upon the portions of text which expire pursuant to this section.

Section 124. In order to implement Specific Appropriations 2423 and 2424 of the 2025-2026 General Appropriations Act:

(1) The Office of Policy and Budget within the Executive

20252502er

Office of the Governor may:

(a) Conduct a review of the functions, procedures, and policies currently in effect for any local governmental entity, local governing authority, or unit of local general-purpose government, as those terms are defined in s. 218.31, Florida Statutes, and any expenditures by such bodies pertaining to local fiscal years ending on September 30, 2024, and September 30, 2025, to identify:

1. Any use of resources to support diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives inconsistent with law.

2. Any evidence of potential gross overspending, waste, fraud, abuse, or mismanagement of resources.

3. Duplicative or redundant government functions.

(b) For the purpose of these reviews, review the following records:

1. Any personnel costs, administrative overhead costs, contracts and subcontracts, programs, grants and subgrants, any outsourcing with a nongovernment organization, and any other expenditures.

2. Any financial documents, including, but not limited to, annual financial audits; annual budgets; millage reports; annual financial reports; audits of any financial accounts or records, including reports on compliance, internal controls, and management letters; and financial statements, audits, accountability, or status reports for local projects funded by any source.

3. Any document setting forth personnel standards and expectations, position responsibilities, and employee training and development standards and materials.

(2) (a) Each local government that received state funding during the current or previous fiscal year must, within 7 business days after the request, provide the personnel of the Office of Policy and Budget access to:

1. Its responsive personnel and subject matter experts.
2. Its physical premises, subject to appropriate security considerations.
3. Its data systems and related data, subject to appropriate security considerations.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require access to records that are confidential under federal or state laws.

(c) Failure to provide access as required in paragraph (a) may subject the local government to a fine of $1,000 per day for noncompliance. The Executive Office of the Governor may assess a fine, if such action is recommended by the Office of Policy and Budget and approved by a three-fourths vote of the Administration Commission. The assessment of a fine pursuant to this section constitutes final agency action pursuant to chapter 120, Florida Statutes. Fines collected under this subsection must be deposited into the General Revenue Fund. Fines imposed pursuant to this paragraph shall be enforced against the local government and not its employees.

(d) Any request for public records by the Office of Policy and Budget to a local governmental entity, a local governing authority, or a unit of local general-purpose government shall be deemed a request to inspect its public records. Enforcement of these requests shall be subject to ss. 119.11 and 119.12, Florida Statutes.

(3) The Office of Policy and Budget shall:

(a) Compile and submit an initial report to the Governor, the Chief Financial Officer, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by January 13, 2026.

The report must, at a minimum:

1. Identify each local government reviewed.

2. Summarize each review.

3. Provide any specific instances of the use of resources for initiatives supporting diversity, equity, and inclusion inconsistent with law.

4. Provide any specific evidence of potential gross overspending, waste, fraud, abuse, or mismanagement of resources.

5. Identify duplicative or redundant government functions.

6. Recommend any opportunities for good governance and methods to improve fiscal responsibility and streamline government services.

(b) Provide the Legislative Auditing Committee any information described in subparagraph (a)4.

Nothing shall preclude the Office of Policy and Budget from engaging in additional activities in support of its duties under this section, including encouraging or receiving cooperation from a local government. This section expires July 1, 2026.

Section 125. In order to implement Specific Appropriation 1311 of the 2025-2026 General Appropriations Act, subsection (2) of section 551.118, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

551.118 Compulsive or addictive gambling prevention program.—
